

UNIT OUTLINE

CHCECE011 PROVIDE EXPERIENCES TO SUPPORT CHILDREN'S PLAY AND LEARNING

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to support children's play and learning.

UNIT OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this unit you will be able to:

1. Create an environment for play
2. Support children's play and learning
3. Facilitate children's play, learning and physical activity

TRAINING AND SKILL PRACTICE

You will receive a copy of the McGraw Hill textbook "The Early Childhood Educator for Certificate III" which includes in depth look at this unit in Part 4, Chapter 17.

To support your training, you will be given a series of activities to complete which include researching and interpreting appropriate experiences for children of all development stages, identifying appropriate materials for learning environments, setting up safe environments, identifying opportunities for children to extend their learning, linking learning experiences back to learning framework outcomes, participating in children's play.

You are required to practice skills such as communication, research, planning, interaction, play, engagement and reflection.

ASSESSMENT TASKS

For this unit assessment consists of a theory test, workplace observations and evidence gathering which build on the skills and knowledge required to effectively provide experience which support children's play and learning. Assessment will ensure that you have can identify learning environments, materials and equipment that support play for children of different developmental stages while also observing and reflecting on opportunities to extend their experiences to further support development.

FEEDBACK

Regular feedback is encouraged, and you can provide this to your Trainer at each visit or you are welcome to forward your comments direct to our administrative team. There is also a feedback section on our website which provides another option for you.

Should you wish to make a complaint or lodge an appeal please refer to your Terms and Conditions or our website for information on the procedure for this.
